Crime Stoppers Awareness Month 2019

Dear Members of the Crime Stoppers Community,

On behalf of City Council, congratulations on another successful awareness month. London Elgin Middlesex Crime Stoppers is a very important organization, providing critical services for London and region for more than three decades. Your efforts to educate Londoners on the important services provided by Crime Stoppers in our community are deeply appreciated.

Each year, Crime Stoppers organizes many important awareness events. While we celebrate your efforts specifically in January, we recognize the important work that you do year-round to protect our city. Thank you to the volunteers for your dedication to improving the security of our community.

The work of your organization contributes considerably to solving crime in our city. In assisting with the closing of numerous cases, London Elgin Middlesex Crime Stoppers has a significant impact on the safety of our community. Your important work makes our city a better place for all Londoners.

Kind regards,

Ed Holder
